

Magic Mouth

30'

special

Imbues a non-living object with an enchanted mouth that appears and speaks its message the next time a specified event occurs. The message may be up to three words per caster level long. The voice will resemble the caster's, but will not be identical. The mouth cannot use command words or activate magical effects.

Any visual and audible triggers can be used to activate the spell. The range limit of a trigger is 10 feet per caster level.
